

THIRTY SOMETHING WOMEN'S SOCCER LEAGUE

WAIVER & INDEMNITY

It is the league's consensus that playing while pregnant carries significant risks and is discouraged. Any member who insists on playing while pregnant does so at their own risk. Accordingly, the membership will accept no responsibility for injuries sustained by pregnant members thereby absolving the membership of any and all responsibility for injuries sustained to a pregnant member arising out of involvement in soccer games and/or practices.

I, _____ (Print Name) consent and assume all risks and hazards of and accidental to the participation in the activities of the North Shore Thirty Something Women's Soccer League and agree to indemnify the League and its officers, members, servants, or agents nominated or appointed by it or on its behalf, against all loss from any claim hereafter made against it or them or any of them by or on behalf of the said player and arising directly from such participation, including transportation.

I state that all information given is correct and complete to my knowledge and I also agree that falsification of information on this form will automatically disqualify my registration.
